Old business: Tammi has checked on the Exxon Mobile donation & it has been approved. ISHSA should see the check soon. Tammi noted that the donation could be available for 2024, she will check out the possibilities. The National Open Show Association has changed the club membership requirements. They will not count points from a show that has breed classes. Jamie will do more checking & report back.

Jamece reported that Mustang Heritage Foundation, will fund the awards for Mustang classes at the double point show, also the Mustang year end awards & will pay for Mustang awards at the TVPHC show. Thank you Mustang Heritage Foundation.

New business: Sabrina asked for a donation for the WIF. Jamece/Felicia moved ISHSA donate buckles for the 13 & under & 14 -18 group. ISHSA reserves the right to buy their own buckles. Motion passed. Tammi wondered if there was a way ISHSA could donate to some of the 4-H clubs. Tish will check. Jamece showed us pictures of awards for hi-point for the fall double point show. Jamece/Tammi moved the award be purchased. Motion approved. Jamece moved that the award for the 11 reserve hi points be purchased also. Motion approved.

Anne reported on the clubs that have paid their show approval fees. The money was given to Megyn with a $300 check from TVPHC for reserve hi point awards for the spring double point show.
